RAMAZAN KIR

ATTORNEY

ABOUT ME

I am an attorney specialising in Banking & Finance, with a particular focus on litigation. I assist clients at every stage of a dispute, from assessing their legal position and preparing proceedings to representing them in court or negotiating a settlement.

I enjoy bringing clarity to complex matters. I take the time to understand each client's priorities and develop a well-considered strategy that serves their interests, whether the matter calls for litigation or a negotiated resolution.

SKILLS

Banking & Finance litigation, dispute resolution, court representation, legal research and analysis, preparation of proceedings, settlement negotiations and advice on contentious matters. Prior experience in corporate litigation and in corporate and M&A matters.

Clear written and oral communication, rigorous attention to detail and strong organisational skills, combined with a practical, solution-oriented approach to disputes.
